QUESTION OF: Combating state supported enforced disappearances within conflict zones

SUBMITTED BY: the Republic of Yemen

CO-SUBMITTED BY: Republic of Korea, Venezuela, Spain, United Kingdom, Myanmar, Guyana, Chad

THE HUMAN RIGHTS COUNCIL,

Deeply concerned over the enforced disappearances by the terrorist group Houthi between 2014 and 2024,

Bearing in mind that the Houthis are a political terrorist organization that enforce rule in Yemen by violence,

Emphasizing the dire situation within the Houthi occupied parts of Yemen and the large amount of people being held captive,

Reminding all member states that a disappearance not only impacts the life of the disappeared but also of all people that knew them well,

Recognizes the 1992 formation of Declaration on the Protection of All Persons from Enforced Disappearance, which was adopted by the General Assembly of the United Nations in the resolution 47/133 of 18 December 1992,

1. Urges that all countries stop supplying weapons which are used to stop us from freeing the abducted humans;
2. Calls upon China, Russia and North Korea temporarily, and until the Houthi problem has been solved stop supplying Iran with weapons which Houthi can use to cause destruction and withhold Yemen from freeing the abducted people;
3. Strongly urges Houthi discusses a truce during which they can discuss an exchange in which Yemen and the United Nations (UN) can free the people that have been kept captive;
4. Expresses its hope to end the Red Sea crisis and free the Gulf of Aden from piracy, thus creating a flourishing and safe trade route;
5. Calls upon the creation of an organization focused on supporting the relatives of the missing persons, funded by the United Nations, providing the following but not limited to:
  - a. subsidies based on the financial role of the missing person
  - b. free mental health support
  - c. temporary shelter if necessary;
6. Urges the United Nations to set up a council that narrates the open cases of missing persons that are suspected of being victims of state enforced disappearances:
  - a. demands an explanation about the suspected state enforced disappearances
  - b. requests confirmation to prove the actual states of the abducted

- c. further requests either the releasing of the abducted or a viable reason for their imprisonment
  - d. demands states to give financial aid to the families of the abducted in question
  - e. further affirms that any state who breaks this agreement will either receive sanctions or will have to pay a hefty fine and are forced to release victims and further follow these guidelines in the ongoing future;
7. Encourages dialogue among member states to discuss the unique challenges faced in different regions regarding enforced disappearances, fostering an environment of mutual understanding and cooperation.
