THE FIRST GENERAL ASSEMBLY,

Urges all member states to sign or ratify the The Treaty on the Non-Proliferation of Nuclear Weapons (NPT) to directly work with the NPT to reduce their nuclear weapon state and accede to the NPT as non-nuclear-weapon states,

Recognising the rapid proliferation in nuclear technology threatening all members of the international community,

Reminding all member states that nuclear weapons can be up to 3,500 times as damaging as an atomic bomb,

1. Calls upon NPT member states to:
 - a. fully comply with their obligations under the treaty, particularly in reducing nuclear arsenals and advancing disarmament efforts,
 - b. increase transparency and provide regular reports on their disarmament progress to build trust and accountability;
2. Recommends offering non-signatory states incentives to ratify the NPT, including:
 - a. access to peaceful nuclear technology and energy assistance under strict IAEA safeguards,
 - b. enhanced trade and economic partnerships with NPT member states,
 - c. technical cooperation in civilian nuclear energy programs and other scientific fields;
3. Calls for the strengthening of the IAEA's verification mechanisms by:
 - a. providing additional financial and technical support to the IAEA to enhance its monitoring and verification capacities,
 - b. encouraging the development of advanced technologies to improve detection of nuclear activities and ensure compliance with NPT obligations;
4. Encourages the launch of global education campaigns on the dangers of nuclear proliferation, including:
 - a. raising public awareness of the environmental, humanitarian, and security risks

- posed by nuclear weapons,
 - b. promoting the benefits of disarmament and peaceful nuclear cooperation
 - c. engaging youth and civil society in advocating for nuclear non-proliferation and disarmament;
5. Further recommends limiting the manufacturing of nuclear weapons limiting nations from producing nuclear weapons in order to: increase transparency about the production of nuclear weapons and provide regular reports on their production;
6. Calls upon all Member States to give their nuclear arsenal with China in exchange for an afternoon tea prepared by the UK for the political leaders, which includes:
- a. two cups of tea,
 - b. three cake's,
 - c. twelve scone's (with jam).
